

ADVERTISEMENT.

*A Sale of China, Indian, and other valuable Goods,
by Mrs. Frances Petty at the China Magazine in St. James's Street, near St. James's House, upon the Terms and Proposals following.*

TH E said Mrs. Petty, being encouraged by several of the Nobility, Gentry, and Merchants, intends to dispose of Fifteen Hundred Pounds worth of Indian, and other Foreign Goods, viz. Several pieces of old and new China Ware, together with Skreens, Cabinets, Scrutoirs, Tables, Chests, Trunks, Silks, &c. by Six Thousand Three Hundred Tickets, each to be sold for Five Shillings a piece; the said Goods to be set forth in Parcels, according to the Division in the Table following. And when the whole Sum is compleated, a distribution of the Goods shall be made by Two Hundred Benefitted Tickets to the Adventurers, whose Number shall arise at the same time that a Benefitted Ticket is drawn.

The Benefitted Tickets are as followeth, viz.

	l.
1 of _____	100
1 of _____	60
1 of _____	50
2 of 25 each _____	50
10 of 20 _____	200
30 of 10 _____	300
5 of 8 _____	40
100 of 5 _____	500
50 of 4 _____	200
200 _____	1500

The said Tickets are to be had at Mr. John Ferguson's, at the Sign of the Three Hats in Leaden-Hall-Street, London, Mr. John Smith, at the Golden Cock in the Strand, Goldsmith, Mr. Richard Bentley at the Post-House in Great Russel-street, in Covent-Garden, Book-Seller, Mr. James Eales, Goldsmith, at the Flying-Horse in King-street, Westminster, and at the said Mrs. Frances Petty's at the China Magazine in St. James's-street; who are hereby appointed, and are contented to be Trustees for the receipt of the Money, and security for the delivery of the Goods, according to the Number and Value express'd in the said Benefit Tickets respectively by them receiv'd, and for the further satisfaction of such as may be concern'd in the said Sale: the Goods have been carefully examin'd, and apprais'd according to the true value, by Citizens of approv'd Credit, and good Judgment therein; who together with the Trustees and several Persons of Honour, and others of Note and Eminency in the City, who have promis'd to be present at the time of drawing, and all other Persons concern'd, who shall be likewise there present, shall be made Judges of the fairness, and equality of the said Performance.

Note, That the Goods assign'd to each particular Benefit Ticket, rated according to the Appraisement, may be seen at all seasonable Hours at the place above-mentioned, till the day affixed for the Draught, which will be perform'd after the full number of Tickets shall be given out, which 'tis hop'd will be done by the twentieth of February next ensuing. But if the said number of Tickets shall be given out before the said twentieth of February, then publick notice shall be given thereof, and the time when the said Sale shall begin, eight days at the least before the same shall be open'd: The Tickets will be drawn by two Children out of Glasses in the same manner (for this Sale of Goods) as that of the Profitable Adventure (for Money in Freemans-yard, London) at the said China Magazine in St. James's-street.